

McCORD

Advanced Micelle Regenerative Technologies

Viniferamine® Aloe Vera Gel & Grape Seed Extract Skin Interaction

Aloe vera gel provides moisture-supporting polysaccharides together with naturally occurring minerals, amino acids, and vitamins, while grape seed extract contributes proanthocyanidins and other antioxidant polyphenols. Applied together, these complementary botanicals help hydrate and condition the skin's surface while supporting a healthier-looking renewal environment for mature skin. Illustration is conceptual and does not represent the precise depth of ingredient penetration.